EARN Webinar:
Supporting Employee Mental Health and Wellbeing:
The Importance of an Individualized Approach
May 18, 2022

Featured Panelists

Toccara Briggs
ADA Team Manager
Intel

Toccara Briggs has been in HR at Intel for over 14 years and for the last five years has worked as the Employee Care Manager supporting complex case management across the US and Latin America. Complex cases include Tragic Events (i.e., death of an employee or employee dependent), Executive Services (i.e., hire to retire for Intel Vice Presidents and above), and Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) workplace accommodations. Prior to her current role, Toccara worked as an HR Business Partner supporting many business groups across Intel including Client Computing, Software, and Fab Manufacturing. During her time at Intel, Toccara has also taken assignments in the Onboarding and Integration Program office, Staffing and as an Org Capability Partner in Penang, Malaysia.

Toccara received her Bachelor’s in Psychology from Agnes Scott College in Decatur, GA, a Master’s in HR Management from Georgia State University in Atlanta, GA and has her PHR and SHRM-CP certifications. She is also a founding member of the Collaborative Mediation program at Intel where they provided a facilitated discussion for conflict resolution.

Outside of work, Toccara enjoys spending time outside riding scooters with her two daughters Alexandria, age 6, and Aubrey, age 3, and traveling with her husband of 10 years, Ronald.
Lori Golden
Disability Strategy Leader
EY Global

Lori is EY Global Disability Strategy Leader, driving efforts to build an enabling environment for people of all abilities, enhance accessibility, educate the workforce, and create new employment models, including EY’s Neuro-diverse Centers of Excellence.

A member of the US Department of Labor’s Circle of Champions and the Global Committee of Disability:IN, she served on the Disability:IN Board of Directors and is Board Vice Chair of TransCen, a non-profit for youth with disabilities.

Lori has disabilities and two children with disabilities. A winner of EY’s Chairman’s Values and Better Begins with You Awards, she’s been at EY 24 years and is a graduate of Harvard University.
Wendi Safstrom is a senior non-profit leader committed to serving the public through philanthropic program management, cultivating strategic partnerships and managing and developing high performing teams. Safstrom currently serves as President for the Society for Human Resource Management Foundation (SHRM Foundation), where she leads the development and implementation of SHRM Foundation's programmatic, development, and marketing and communication strategies in support of SHRM Foundation's new mission and vision, creating growth plans and ensuring alignment with SHRM goals.

Safstrom previously served as Vice President at the National Restaurant Association and National Restaurant Association Educational Foundation, where she led the development and implementation of their Foundation's most recent five-year strategic plan, and was responsible for all Foundation programming, including workforce development initiatives, scholarship and event management, community relations and engagement initiatives. In 2016, she served as lead project director for the development of a $10 million contract awarded by the U.S. Department of Labor to develop the hospitality industry's first apprenticeship program, and was instrumental in the Foundation's reorganization and relocation of operations from Chicago, Illinois to Washington, D.C., transforming the staff and culture.

Safstrom has also held human resource management roles with the Leo Burnett Company and Hyatt Hotels Corporation in Chicago, Illinois. She has a BS in Business Administration from the Eli Broad School of Business at Michigan State University and was recognized as a member of the 2014 "Power 20" by Restaurant Business Magazine as a leader in philanthropy within the restaurant industry.

For More Information Visit www.AskEARN.org